“The Secrets of Successful Partners”

Paul Weiss, M.S., Saturday Nov 7th, 10a.m.—Noon
St. Charles Episcopal Church, 994 N. 5th Ave., St. Charles, IL

Paul Weiss, M.S.

In a series of landmark studies, researchers have identified exactly what people who succeed in intimate relationships do differently than those who fail. They discovered a core set of emotional habits that are so powerfully positive that, when people have them, they end up having satisfying long-term relationships over 90% of the time.

This seminar is an introduction of the core set of emotional habits that are needed to succeed in a love relationship. Paul Weiss will describe the ground-breaking studies that have identified how couples develop new relationship habits, and he'll discuss advances in neuroscience that reveal how to make new relationship habits last.

Paul Weiss is a licensed marriage and family therapist and member of a team of therapist/educators who have pioneered new methods for improving relationships at the Couples Clinic, in Geneva, Illinois. The team's ideas about relationships have received academic accolades and have also appeared in the Oprah Magazine, the Washington Post, Cosmopolitan, and other magazines. A personable and engaging speaker, Paul is known for his down-to-earth style and sense of humor. His seminars are packed with cutting-edge information and practical methods for improving relationships. Come with a partner or by yourself. Either way, you'll leave with a new understanding of what it takes to make an intimate relationship work.
